

When you lose your insurance card

How to apply for reissue

【Eligible person】

Insured Person of Japan Health Insurance Association

【Procedures】

Please download and print an “Application for reissue of health insurance card” from the website of Japan Health Insurance Association. Please submit the filled application to your employer, who makes necessary entries on the form and sends it to the branch office of Japan Health Insurance Association by post.

(If you are voluntarily-continued insured or his/hers dependents, columns for employer don't need to be filled out.)

【Where to send the application by post】

◎ Insured employees or their dependents

→The application should be sent from your employer to the branch office of Japan Health Insurance Association in your district.

◎ Voluntarily-continued insured persons and their dependents→The application should be sent directly to the branch office of Japan Health Insurance Association in your district.

【Notes】

We send reissued insurance cards to your employer.

(If you are voluntarily-continued insured or his/her dependents, we send the card directly to your home.)